DISCUSSION

Authorized Classifications, Positions and Salary Grades

At the June 28, 2010 Board meeting, the Board approved an Authorized Classifications, Positions and Salary Grades Exhibit A that authorized "coupled" classifications wherein only one of the two authorized positions could be encumbered by an employee. In each case, one of the two positions was encumbered by an employee and the vacant position was a newly created classification. Subsequent to the Board's approval, the General Manager/CEO shifted the incumbent employees from the encumbered position to the newly created classifications. The newly vacant positions are no longer necessary and staff is requesting that the Board approve the new Exhibit A, which eliminates the vacant positions. Approval by the Board of the propose Exhibit A returns the overall authorized positions count to 921.

The Board also approved the establishment of the Senior Customer Advocate classification which was coupled with the Customer Satisfaction Coordinator classification. Because the incumbent has since been shifted into the Senior Customer Advocate classification by the General Manager/CEO, staff recommends that the vacant Customer Satisfaction Coordinator classification be eliminated.

Changes to position control resulting from this action are reflected in the list of Authorized Classifications, Positions and Salary Grades attached to the Resolution as Exhibit A.

Staff recommends approval of this action.
